LLANERCH WINNER IN INQUIRER GOLF

Herman Barrone won $25,000 in tournament golf last year and wants more. The 37-year-old pro from White Plains, N. Y., has entered the $15,000 fourth annual Philadelphia Inquirer Invitation tournament at Cedarbrook Country Club, May 22-26. He won the tournament sponsored by the Philadelphia Inquirer last year and then went on to grab the $10,000 first prize in the Tam O'Shanter All-American at Chicago a month later. The stocky golfer made money last year than Byron Nelson, who had practiced Barrone's swing, nagged him to practice, patted him on the back occasionally.

Ford Trackmen In Delco Meet

Haverford High's track and field team will attempt to regain the Delaware County crown for the first time in several seasons this Saturday afternoon, competing in the annual invitation meet at Lansdowne High field. The Ford team, coached by Bill Breuninger, was idle last week, but the relay squads took part in the University of Pennsylvania Relays at Franklin Field. Haverford runners triumphed in a class mile relay Saturday afternoon, winning in 3:34.4 over Abington, P. S. duPont, of Wilmington, Del., and Ridley Park. Running for the Fords were Bruce Smith, Frank Krenzer, Bob Stelman and Bob Schlenz. Blond Bob Schlenz, one of the suburban area's speediest sprinters, created a furor Friday when he turned the quarter-mile in 51.4 seconds, the fastest Relay time recorded for a high school boy. He ran anchor for the Haverford team which finished second to Chester in the Suburban Class A championship race.

L. Merion Meets Panthers Here

Bob Hackman, who scored two triumphs in the hurdling events at Lower Merion upset Northeast Catholic High trackmen Tuesday, 60-56, will be favored Friday when the Main Liners meet Cheltenham High at Ardmore in a dual meet. Lower Merion, beaten only by West Chester, in dual meets this season, will entertain La Salle High and Haverford School, of the Inter-academic League, next Wednesday in a triangular meet. Meanwhile, it was announced that Gene Zeiner, PIAA District One high jump champion, probably will return to the squad in time for the district championships at Upper Darby High on Saturday, May 10. Zeiner, a L.M. gymnastic star, who also competes in the pole vault, has been sidelined since mid-March by a broken wrist.

L. M. BOYS' AND GIRLS' LACROSSE TEAMS PLAY

Lower Merion High's boys' lacrosse team, coached by Hank Ford, will meet U. S. Military Academy Plebes at West Point this Saturday afternoon. The Coach Ford, former Swarthmore College lacrosse star, presently is teaching at Bala-Cynwyd Junior High. This Friday, L. M. girls' lacrosse team will attempt to gain vengeance for an early season defeat by meeting Swarthmore High girls at Swarthmore.

TEMPLE GIRL GOLFEES

Temple University has added golf to its women's sports schedule. Duties of coach have been assumed by Mrs. J. Conrad Seegers, wife of the associate dean of Teacher's College and a member of Sandy Run. There was a record turnout of candidates when Mrs. Seegers signed up aspirants for the Temple squad. Seventy-five reported for the first call three weeks ago.

Haverford High, L. Merion Nines Gain Victories

Lower Merion and Haverford High athletes, fresh from Suburban Section One triumph, will return to the baseball wars this week. The Ardmore Aces will play at Penn Charter Friday and Haverford travels to Upper Darby for a league game on Thursday. Next Monday, Haverford will play host to Norristown at Brookline and Lower Merion will meet Radnor at Wayne. The L. M. nine upset Radnor earlier this season, 9-4. Next week's charters behind Sam Gianopolous' five-hit hurling performance, pulled a triple play for Norristown succumbed, 4-1. Monday, On Tuesday, Lower Merion handed Friends Central its first defeat, 4-3. Bob Kirk was credited with the triumph, after Len Sheppard hit a homer with Ted Hoffman on base in the fifth. Hoffman, L. M. second baseman, engineered that seventh-inning triple play against Norristown, tossing to Shortstop Bob Di Marco. The turn in turn tilted to Jim Baalam at first base. Connie Mack, 3d, and Sheppard led the attack with two hits each. Al Kirk pitched L. M. to an 8-4 victory over Haverford Thursday night. The Fords' future employed four pitchers. Haverford re-repellers Huber Smith is expected to hurl for Alle Corneo's charges against Upper Darby Thursday.

CHITWOOD TO DRIVE IN LANGHORNE TEST

Jole Chitwood, of Reading, is one of the early entrants for the 1947 big car opening race program at Langhorne Speedway, May 11. The inaugural show at the Lincoln Highway speedway will be a series of well-known sprint races which will provide more than 100 miles of racing.

Chitwood is one of the few drivers who can pilot the big cars and also perform as a thrill driver. He was fifth in last year's annual Memorial Day 500-mile classic at Indianapolis and ended the 1946 campaign as the eighth ranking racer. Jole was third in last week's main event at Reading.

FORD TENNIS, GOLF TEAMS IN ACTION

Haverford High boys' and girls' tennis teams will be in action at Norristown this Thursday. The girls' team will play at Lower Merion on Friday, according to the spring sports schedules released by Alle Corneo, veteran athletic director. Both the boys' and girls' teams will play at the Norristown tennis courts. It will be the second match of the season for Art Walter's golfers, the Fords having previously met Cheltenham away.

PHILA. WARRIORS FETED BY BUSINESS CLUB

Fans throughout the Philadelphia district are bailing the Philadelphia Warriors for their sensational conquest of the Basketball Association of America championship. The Warriors will be the guests of the City Business Club at luncheon Friday at the Bellevue-Stratford, when official city recognition will be given them for bringing the first basketball trophy to the Quaker City in almost two decades.

CHESTER SPRINGS BOWS TO HANGOVER

The Innjuna had better stay away from Paoli for our boys are dead shots as the members of the Chester Springs Skeet Club will allow. In a hundred-target match run off on Sunday, April 20, and Sunday, April 27, the shooters from the Haverford Gun Club of Paoli, took the men and ladies from Chester Springs with consummate ease and thereby kept the beautiful trophy made and donated by one of their absent members, John Marie, of "Home House," Paoli.

VETS BALLHAWKS PRACTISE; WANT GAMES

The initial practice of the baseball squad representing Upper Main Line Post No. 5203, VFW, was held Monday night on the Pariah House field in Paoli. Nearly 20 candidates turned out and performed under the watchful eye of Coach Barney Umbach, who has signed as manager for this year.

Devault Men's Club Held Raffle on 24th

For the past three weeks, the members of the Men's Club of Devault have been selling chances to help equip their baseball team. The drawing was held Thursday, April 24, in their club house in Devault. Carmel Romano, Norristown, won the bicycle; Baby Cybok, Devault, and Angelo Dastolfo, Malvern, the pressure cookers, and Ann Battisto, of Berwyn, the fountain pen.

CARNERA SIGNS AGAIN

George Becker will clash with Fred von Schacht, Milwaukee, in the window of this Friday's wrestling show at the Arena. Primo Carnera also has been signed for another appearance on the Arena mat the following Friday, May 9. The former heavyweight boxing champion, who is undefeated in wrestling to date, will meet the winner of this week's window.

Manoa A. A. to Sponsor 14th Minstrel Show on Saturday

Manoa A. A. will stage its annual minstrel show and dance this Saturday night at the Club Del Rio, Manoa. It will be the club's 14th annual show, according to Charles M. Dill, business manager. Howard Cates, former Manoa pitcher, presently coach of the baseball team, is director of the show. This marks the 11th consecutive season that he has served in that capacity. He is assisted by another former Manoa star, coach Sammy Rudolph. Bill Getz, Manoa A. A. president, will act as intercomedian. Other participants in the show will be Dave Stokley, Jack Thorne-

Rod-Gun Club To Plant Trees

Shipment Received from County Federation

Earl Moore, Forestry chairman of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, reported that a group of one and two-year-old seedlings has been received from the nurseries of the Montgomery County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

Moore made his report at a meeting of the group held last week in the Legion rooms of the Narberth Community Building.

The seedlings which included hazel nuts, white pine, red pine and persimmons, will be planted by the club in a grove on the club site at the Chamberlain farm in Penn Valley as a memorial to the late E. Fred Brouse, of Norristown.

Plans are being discussed for club participation in the Memorial Day program, sponsored by the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion, which will be held in Narberth.

Frank Flynn, of Narberth, chairman of the Pistol Committee of the club, reported that 20 matches will be held under the auspices of the Eastern Police Pistol League at the Lower Merion Township Police Pistol Range.

Services Tuesday for Miss Jeannie M. Wire

Miss Jeannie Marion Wire, former associate editor of the Ladies' Home Journal and private secretary to Edward Bok, its late editor, died Saturday at her home, 302 Kent Rd., Cynwyd. She was 81.

Miss Wire entered the employ of the Curtis Publishing Co. in the 1890s.

A native of Philadelphia, she had lived in Cynwyd for more than 40 years. She was a member of St. Paul's Church, Overbrook, and until recently was active in its Altar Guild.

Autocar Plant on List For Visiting Military Officers

Ardmore's Autocar Plant was on the list of stopping-off places, this week, for a group of high-ranking military officers in training for duty in economic mobilization in the event of an emergency.

The officers, who are making a tour of industrial installations in Philadelphia, will also see the RCA-Victor plant in Camden, the Atlantic Refining Co. and the Philadelphia Naval Base during the week's tour.

Ardmore Bankers Honored at Penco Bowling Dinner

Five employees at the Ardmore branch of the Pennsylvania Co. are members of the victorious "Branches" team in the Penco Bowling League.

They are William J. Lloyd, Manager of the Ardmore bank branch; James L. Gardner, Assistant Manager; Joseph W. Smith, William Hill and John H. Stewart, who is captain of the first-place bowling team.

They were presented the Herbert O. Frey Bowling Trophy recently at a banquet held at the Mocombo Restaurant in Philadelphia. Frey is a vice president of the Pennsylvania Co.

WEEKLY HEALTH REPORT

Lower Merion Township Health Officer Robert J. Thomas reported 18 new cases of chicken pox and 11 cases of mumps for the week ending April 25.

Grease stains in the oven will be much easier to clean if a shallow pan of ammonia is placed in the oven for a few hours or overnight for the fumes to help soften the grease.

Nylon "wool," which is nylon fibre cut and crimped to resemble wool, debuts soon. Men's socks, sweaters, and blankets are among articles to be made from it. It will be scarce for a while and quite expensive.

Junior can now be tempted to brush his teeth with a new tablet dentifrice that tastes like candy. All you do is take the tablet, a sip of water, then chew and brush.

Shoes are expensive now, but shoe men say prices will go even higher if hide exports are permitted. Foreign countries are willing to about double the price the domestic market is paying—which indicates that it's good economy to give all your shoes the oil' shinala to make them wear longer.

Either the full or slim silhouette is stylish this year. But, ladies, they're both fitted closely to the figure, accentuating a small waistline and the natural curves.
